LEADERSHIP CLASS

WEEK TWO: An Awesome Responsibility

Watch “When the Chips are Down” by Richard Lavoie and answer the following questions. Feel free to use a separate piece of paper. Neat handwriting is acceptable, typing is awesome.

1. What is Richard Lavoie mean when he talks about “poker chips”?
2. Why is it important for a Karate student to bring a lot of “poker chips” to class?
3. Name three ways you can give a student “poker chips”?
4. Name three ways you can take away a student’s “poker chips”?
5. What would Richard Lavoie say is the number one job of a STORM member?
